Local Affairs.

St. James' Church, Bolivar, Tenn.
Services on every Sunday and on all the Holy Days by the RECTOR, W. C. GRAY.
The hour for opening Sunday School is 8 1/2 o'clock A. M.
Morning Service on Sundays..... 10 1/2
Evening Service on Sundays..... 7 30 P. M.
On Holy Days..... 7 30 A. M. and 4 15 P. M.
Services twice each Wednesday and Friday during Lent.
The seats of this Church are ALL FREE.

NOTICE.—To Subscribers.—When a red cross-mark appears on the margin of your paper it is placed there to notify you that your subscription has expired. If you desire the paper to be discontinued notify us of the fact immediately; otherwise it will be continued at your expense.
Persons who have the paper brought to them by the carrier, and who are monthly subscribers, are hereby notified that hereafter no subscription will be received for a less time than six months, payable in advance.

M. C. R. R.—Trains pass Bolivar as follows: Passenger train, south, 3 00 P. M.; passenger train, north 12 o'clock at night.

LOOK TO YOUR CONTRACTS.—Farmers and others employing freedmen for the present year should not fail to have the proper papers filed in the office of the Agent of the Freedmen's Bureau, as the same laws are now in force that contracts were made under in 1865, and all those persons who fail to comply with the regulations, and who assume the responsibility of employing negroes without having the contract duly witnessed in the office of the Agent, will most assuredly render themselves liable to a fine of no inconsiderable amount. Parties interested are hereby notified that the Agent for this county, John D. Usery, Esq., is ready, either in person, or by proxy, at his office, in Bolivar, to discharge the responsibilities resting upon him. Look to your contracts, and save trouble in the future.

SUBSTANTIAL WORK.—Yesterday we called in at the manufactory of M. G. Scott, and there saw unmistakable evidence of his skill in mechanism. Mr. Scott, we learn, is now prepared to manufacture, to order, buggies and carriages of superior quality and finish. If you desire anything in his line, call and see him, as he will make it to your interest to patronize home enterprise.

EDUCATIONAL.—By reference to a card which appears in another column, it will be seen that the Spring Session of Mrs. Thompson's select school for young ladies will commence on Monday, the 21st day of the present month. The school is an excellent one, and merits the patronage of the citizens of Hardeman.

GOING TO LEAVE.—Mr. Ed. Elson, senior member of the firm of Elson & Co., informs us that he is determined to sell off their entire stock of goods, wares, etc., at cost price, as he is compelled to return to Memphis, where his interests are more heavily centered. We are loth to part with so genial a gentleman and especially do we regret to lose from our mercantile profession his enterprising and liberal spirit. Success attend you, Ed., wherever you may go.

SCANTY.—But small quantities of wheat have been sown in this section. When flour commands $20 per barrel we think that it ought to be an inducement for planters to plant more of the cereals and less cotton. However, we are all working for the yanks, and we feed from their cribs, at their own prices.

QUARTERLY COURT.—This court will convene next Monday. We presume that among other important subjects brought before it, will be that of the new Court house. In our next issue we will try and give a full synopsis of all the business brought before the court.

COLD WEATHER.—For the past two weeks we have experienced remarkably cold weather. We noticed that the ice houses of our citizens were being filled with ice of a superior quality.

FAMILY ALMANAC.—1867.—We have on hand for general distribution copies of Gilbert & Higbee's Memphis Family Almanac, for the use of planters, farmers, mechanics, and all others. Call and get a copy—it is a valuable publication.

Drs. T. E. Moore and Hugh W. Tate have formed a partnership for the purpose of practicing medicine. Until they secure an office the former can be found at the drug store of Black & Moore, while the latter remains at his office in the store of Swinebroad & Tate.

Too Late.—"Hardtimes" well-worned random shot will appear in our next issue. It is not very far to Memphis, but it takes a letter a long time to make the round trip from that city to this.

COLMAN'S RURAL WORLD.—This agricultural journal began its 19th year and volume on the first of January, 1866. Those wishing to take it should subscribe now, so as to obtain all the numbers of the new volume. It is printed in suitable form for binding, so that the information it contains can be preserved for future reference. We believe all Western farmers would find this journal of great value and would get much more than the worth of their money by subscribing for it. It is published at $2.00 per annum, Single Copy, or Four Copies for $8. Every Club is entitled to a Premium in St. Louis Raspberry Plants or Concord Grape Vines.

Address Norman J. Colman, Publisher, 97 Chestnut street, St. Louis, Mo.

IMPROVED COTTON PLANTER.—We call the attention of the planters of this section to the superior qualities of the J. D. Allen improved cotton planter, and assure them that it is one of the best inventions of the age. It is no Yankee humbug, and only has to be tested to be appreciated. For sale by the staunch and reliable house of Orgill, Bros. & Co., Memphis. Price $35. No farmer should be without this valuable machine, for it is as durable as it is useful, and does its work with a precision never before attained by any similar piece of mechanism.

MARRIED.—In Purdy, Tenn., on the 20th ult., by the Rev. W. A. Gray, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Riggs, Look to Mrs. E. E. Whittier.

MAMMOTH STOCK.—Fleming & Usery, at their useful place, this family grocery store of Bolivar, have on hand and for sale at Memphis prices, the largest assortment of staple and fancy groceries ever collected under one roof in Hardeman county. As a specialty we call the attention of the public to their lists of brandies, wines and liquors, all of which are of the purest and best quality. Call and examine for yourself.

OUR OWN SOUTHERN BITTERS.—By reference to another column it will be seen that the proprietors of this celebrated tonic have established an agency here, and that Fleming & Usery are the obligated individuals. Messrs. Ebbert & Co. deserve much credit for the manner in which they have striven to supplant the Yankee nostrums that have been so long gulped down by the people of the South, and as they are among those who stood the test that tried men's souls, it is to be hoped that they will meet with the encouragement they so richly deserve. Get one bottle and try the bitters.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—An election will be held to-day for members of the Board of Aldermen, also, for the purpose of choosing a town constable. We trust our citizens are alive to the importance of the occasion. Let us have Municipal officers in fact—it is high time some one was feeling a little interested in the appearance and condition of the streets of Bolivar.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—McCarley will sell, on next Monday, at the court house door a large quantity of valuable land. All classes of purchasers can be accommodated. Be sure and attend.

THANKS.—R. G. Crawford, deputy County Court Clerk, will please accept "yo locals's" thanks for the many favors he has been pleased to extend him. See his last on the first page of to-day's paper, and headed "Matrimony."

CASH SYSTEM.—Gray & Wilkerson have adopted the cash system and are selling goods at remarkably low figures. See their card in another column.

LOCAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

While you are in Funds Provide for your Families.

Fleming & Usery are now prepared to fill all orders for family supplies at Memphis rates with freight added. We buy our sugar, molasses and coffee in New Orleans, and are satisfied to sell for the same profits as Memphis merchants. We keep the best brands of flour to be had in St. Louis. Our stock of groceries is immense, and we are in daily receipt of new and fresh goods, and intend to keep our stock complete, and will not be undersold. FLEMING & USERY.

clothing at prices far below cost at ELSON & CO.'S.

At the popular house of Adams, Neilson & Co., the public will find a large and complete stock of dry goods, wares, notions, etc. They stick to the one price system, and sell at the lowest living rates. John T. Graham is there, and will take pleasure in waiting on those who favor the house with their custom.

We are determined to keep our stock of dry goods and groceries complete, and in order to do so, a great deal of money is necessary. We therefore call upon ALL persons indebted to us, to come forward and make settlement. "Be off with the old loan before you are on with the new." FLEMING & USERY.

Reduction of Board.—On and after this date, I will accommodate Day Boarders at the rate of $18 per month, with room, at $20 each per month. Mrs. M. E. Hodges.

Camberland iron, horseshoes and horse-shoe nails for sale by FLEMING & USERY.

WARREN'S.—At this cafe de Bolivar can be found the purest and best article of Old Robertson County. Will you take sugar in your tea?

MEMPHIS BUSINESS NOTICES.

CHOATE & Co.—At 232 Front street, you can purchase plows, machinery, hardware, stoves, cutlery, tin and sheet-ironware, at northern prices. Choate & Co. are reliable, and will fill orders from the country with satisfaction.

J. H. Lowenstein & Bros., in the Clay building, Main street, are the heaviest dealers in dry goods and notions to be found in the bluff city. They sell exclusively at wholesale and will duplicate northern or eastern bills.

Lory.—Joseph Lory, the great tonorial artist, is always on hand at his Excelsior saloon in the Wortham House. Try him once and you will be convinced that he understands his business.

DIXIE.—This genial hearted gentleman is still lord of the palatial saloon in the basement of the New Memphis Theatre. Do not fail to call on him when you are in the city of mud—the home of the M. P.'s.

A GEN.—Harry Weatherbee's saloon, in the Senate building, Jefferson street, is truly one of the gems of Memphis. Every thing there is sparkling and bright. Remember, you will find Harry in the rear of the building.

Blood & Co.—For oils, paints, zinc, lead, lanterns, stoves, tin-ware, and numerous other household indispensables, call at 40 and 40 1/2 Monroe street, where you can purchase at manufacturer's prices.

FINE CLOTHING.—J. H. Waggoner & Co., in Clark's marble block, Main street, keep constantly on hand the finest stock of clothing to be found in any one house in the Mississippi Valley. Wholesale and retail.

DAT.—Professor Y. Day, at his Art Gallery, corner of Union and Main streets, can furnish you with pictures of yourself or friends of matchless beauty and durability.

Are Men the Children of Monkeys?—What Professor Agassiz Thinks about it.

In his twelfth and last lecture on Brazil, delivered in Boston, Professor Agassiz devoted a portion of his lecture to the subject of the monkey tribes, and a defence of the Professor's theory that the different races of men have different origins. This, he said, was an awkward subject, and one which he dreaded to discuss, though it was relieved of some of the embarrassment which surrounded it while slavery existed, when the assertion of the inferiority of the negro was regarded as a defence of the system of slavery. The discussion was as pleasant because it involved assent from the doctrine of common origin which the Christian world has so long held sacred. Yet he felt bound to express his conviction on this subject. While regarding the monkey tribes as the highest of the quadruped mammalia, and as next to man, he could not sanction the doctrine of the final transformation of monkeys into men, and was not inclined to admit that we are the descendants of the highest monkeys. In this connection the lecturer remarked in an interesting manner upon the characteristics of the monkey, the orang-outang, the chimpanzee, the gorilla and the gibbon, marking them as families distinct from man, though in many points having affinity, yet having different percentage. Considering the reasons from whence the monkey tribes derived their origin it must be concluded that if they were allied to any of the races of men it was to the Mongolian and the negro, and not to the white, but a critical examination of facts would not warrant the theory of transmutation, or the doctrine that men have a common origin. The fact that the progeny of a combination of individuals of two races never resemble one or the other, the same relation as different species of animals bear to each other, and that all have different origin. Perhaps, indeed, different nationalities also have different origins.

In conclusion, the lecturer said that unless the fact of a common origin could be established historically, we must accept the conclusions deduced from the investigations of naturalists. If we could trace a play of variation and succession through all ages, instead of regarding diversity as the result of accident, we should see the evidence of a thinking mind in the whole creation, and recognize ourselves as the children of God, and not as the children of monkeys.

Burning of the Steamer Erie—Remarkable Dream by a Lady in Buffalo.
A contributor to the Oswego (New York) Times and Advertiser furnishes the following remarkable narrative:
The Erie left Buffalo at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of August 9, 1841, and was discovered to be on fire about 8 o'clock in the evening, when off Silver Creek. She was destroyed, and about one hundred and seventy human beings perished.

I have recently been spending a few days in the city of Buffalo. While there, my landlady, who is a woman of high reputation for veracity, and for more than forty years a resident of that city, related to me the following remarkable dream and its fulfillment:
At the time referred to she was keeping boarders, among whom was a Mr. Brown—I think that is the name. One night she dreamed she saw a steamer on fire on Lake Erie, and in the rigging she saw a man enveloped in flames. She noted his features, the color of his hair, which was very dark. She then seemed to be transferred to the country, where she saw a new-made grave, and saw the sexton, a Mr. Purse, with a spade, and a woman, bring the charred corpse of the burned man for burial. She awoke from the dream in a great state of excitement and perspiration. She immediately awoke her husband and related the dream. She was so much affected by it that she dare not go to sleep again, lest it should be repeated. The next day, at noon, Mr. Brown brought a friend to dine with him, by the name of Pool, from New York. As soon as she saw him she recognized him as the person who she saw in the dream on the burning steamer. The effect on her was so shocking, still she said nothing to him or to Mr. B. She had never seen him before only in the dream. At five he did not return with his friend B. to tea. Mrs. B. inquired where he was. Mr. B. replied that he had taken the steamer Erie for Cleveland. She then related her dream and expressed her fears to Mr. B. He only laughed at her credulity, saying she was a woman of too good sense to be moved or excited by a dream. Early next morning Mr. B. went out but soon returned in the wildest state of excitement, exclaiming: "O! my God, the steamer Erie was burned last night, and my friend Pool was burned in her!" Mr. Pierce the sexton, with his white horse, was sent to bring the remains and give them sepulchre in the cemetery, just as was seen in the dream.

Never mind, Mollie, there is no good fish in the sea as ever was caught.
"Mollie knows that," replied her little brother, "but she wants a whale."

To Noteholders of the Union Bank.—By an act of the legislature, the notes of this institution has been extended to January 1, 1869. This action of the General Assembly overrides the ruling of our Chancery Court, which, at its July term, ordered the registration to be completed by the first of January next, preparatory to a final settlement, and a pro rata distribution of its assets. The receiver, Joseph W. Allen, has accordingly notified the public through the press of the increased allowance of time.—Nashville Press and Times.

No. 322 Front Street, - - - - - Memphis, Tenn.

We take this method of informing our friends and the public generally that we have associated ourselves together under the firm name of Miller, Jones & Co., for the purpose of carrying on a general Grocery and Commission business, at No. 322 Front Street, Memphis, where we would be pleased to meet all of our old friends and as many new ones as we can convince it will be to their advantage to give us their business.

We are prepared to Receive, Store and Sell all kinds of Country Produce, such as Cotton, Tobacco, Flour, Hay, Corn, Oats, Bran, and in fact, any and everything the farmer may have for sale.

We are now in receipt of, and are daily receiving, a large lot of all the articles usually kept in a Grocery Store, consisting in part of Bagging, Rope, Sugar, Coffee, Molasses, Bacon, Lard, Flour, Nails, Powder, Shot, Lead, Percussion Caps, Rice, Fish of all kinds, Tobacco, Cigars, Snuff, Oysters, Sardines, Canned Fruits of all kinds, Candles, Buckets and Tubs, Spices, Sauces, Brooms, Matches, and Wines and Liquors of all grades and qualities, all of which we will sell at the lowest market rates.

We respectfully solicit a liberal share of your patronage, and should you visit our city, would be pleased to have you call on us.

Our Mr. Jones will devote his entire attention to the sale of Cotton and all other goods shipped us for sale.

All Cotton and other articles consigned to our house will be covered by our open policy of Insurance, unless otherwise instructed.

Hoping to have the pleasure of transacting a liberal share (if not all) of your business in our city, We Remain, Your Obedient Servants, MILLER, JONES & CO.

Wholesale Dealers and Importers of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Clothing,
Gents' Furnishing Goods,
Boots, Shoes, Ladies' and Gents' Hats, Notions, Umbrellas, Etc.

We are selling to the Trade exclusively at Prices which challenge comparison with those of Eastern Cities.
Our stock being the largest and best assorted in the Mississippi Valley, we offer our Notions, Ready Made Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods, etc., at the lowest New York prices for cash or city acceptance. We being the agents for several of the largest factories in the Southern States, offer our Domestic Goods at factory prices, and our Mr. J. H. LOEWENSTINE residing in New York, importing exclusively for us, enables us to keep one of the largest stocks west of New York constantly supplied with New Goods of the latest styles adapted to the Southern and Southwestern Trades. We call the attention of both large and small buyers, that keeping the largest stock, and selling at the lowest prices, we make it a great advantage for buyers to purchase here. Remember to purchase Goods at Wholesale prices.

N. B.—We have no connection with any other House in this city.
